Allyson Bell Joins Apollo as Manager of Delivery Services

Irvine, CA September 27, 2006 – Apollo Enterprise Solutions LLC, the leading provider of web-based payment and collection technology, announced today that Allyson Bell has joined the company as Manager of Delivery Services.

Prior to joining Apollo, Bell served as a Delivery Solutions Consultant and a Marketing Manager at Experian. Her delivery services responsibilities included managing the creation and execution of custom solutions, including technical requirements and post-sale support to clients spanning the financial services, collections, telecommunications, energy and cable industries. She also provided product training and technical support to clients and gained extensive experience with a number of software providers. As a Marketing Manager, Bell supported the direct sales relationship with top Experian clients and developed marketing and public relations communications to promote Experian products and partnerships.

“I’m looking forward to working with Apollo because I’ll have the opportunity to assist clients in creating and implementing a unique payment and collection solution that provides complete debt life-cycle solutions and can immediately impact their bottom line,” said Bell.

Apollo’s Executive Vice President of Sales & Marketing, Jeff Dickey, noted, “Allyson’s six years of direct client experience with Experian and her seven years of experience in the consumer credit industry will allow our customers to experience an extremely smooth transition from their current collections efforts to Apollo’s cutting-edge technology.”
